

General Election Board Nominations 2023

This year three (3) Board positions (for a 2-year term) will be open for nomination, re-nomination and election. These positions consist of one vacating position (all terms served) and two (2) Board positions being declared vacant due to completion of a two year term.

The following information is provided as guidance:

- Current members who have held Individual Association membership for at least 6 months are eligible to stand for election, nominate another Member and vote in the event of a contested nomination
- To be eligible for nomination all nominees for Board vacancies must be confirmed members of the Association.
- All women seeking election to the GWH Board at the AGM, in accordance with the requirements of the GWH Constitution, must lodge their full application with GWH by 22nd September 2023
- Existing Board members whose positions are declared vacant this year may renominate if they have not exceeded the maximum six year total term
- Women who have held a casual vacancy during the year and wish to continue are also required to re-nominate (nomination form only required)
- No late nominations will be accepted
- If more nominations than vacancies are received, an election will be held

All women who wish to be elected to the GWH Board will need to submit the following:

- GWH Board application form including details of two current referees
- GWH Board Nomination Form - the Board Chair or CEO can be contacted if you require assistance in seeking current Association members for the nomination process
- GWH Conflict of Interest Form
- A Statement Piece of approximately 250 words outlining why you are seeking a Board position and your experience and qualifications (a current resume can be submitted if available)
- Confirmation of current GWH Association Membership with at least 6 months membership
- Confirmation of a current Police Check and Working with Children Check (or willingness to obtain)
- Confirmation of COVID-19 Vaccination

All nominations are to be addressed to the "Returning Officer" and can be returned by COB 22 September 2023:
